

Nevada Seal of Biliteracy

Did you know CCSD awards the Nevada Seal of Biliteracy?

The Nevada Seal of Biliteracy (NSOB) is an award given to recognize students who have attained proficiency in English and at least one other language by high school graduation.

In addition, the NSOB is evidence of bilingual skills that are attractive to future employers and college admissions offices.

What are the criteria for the Nevada Seal of Biliteracy?

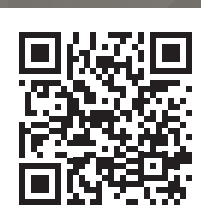

- Complete all high school graduation requirements (seniors and juniors who graduate early).
- Complete all semesters of English with a 2.0 or higher unweighted GPA.
- Demonstrate proficiency in one or more languages other than English by completing one of the following options:
 - ♦ An Advanced Placement (AP) World Language Exam with a score of 3 or higher
 - ♦ An International Baccalaureate (IB) World Language Exam with a score of 4 or higher
 - ♦ A district-approved language exam with a passing score

How do you apply for the award?

If you have already passed an AP or IB World Language exam, you do not need to apply. You will automatically be qualified to receive the award as long as all criteria are met.

If you have not already passed an AP or IB exam, you will need to apply online and then take a district-approved language proficiency exam. For more information about the application process, scan the QR code or click the link below.

Applications will be accepted starting Monday, October 2, 2023, from 8:00 a.m. and will close on Monday, December 8, 2023, at 5:00 p.m., late applications will not be accepted.
