Linda and Richard Rivera Family Scholarship

Green Valley High School Wrestling Team

$2500 Scholarship

Who May Apply:

Green Valley High School seniors who:

- 1) were members in good standing of the 2019-2020 GVHS Wrestling Team from the beginning of the season to the end;
- 2) remained athletically eligible for the entire season as verified by Coach Ferry; and
- 3) currently maintain a cumulative 2.5 GPA, weighted or unweighted.

Award:

Scholarship award of $2500 for recipient(s) selected by the Rivera Scholarship Committee. Verification of enrollment in a minimum of 12 credits per semester at a post-secondary institution is required for disbursement of award. Class schedule displaying classes/credits as well as student and school names will be accepted to verify enrollment. Scholarship funds must be applied toward tuition, fees, and other appropriate educational expenses. The award will be disbursed in equal payments over two semesters. Students must remain academically eligible to receive second disbursement.

DEADLINE TO APPLY: April 6, 2020

Familiarize yourself with Linda Rivera's story by searching the internet. Linda was a teacher's aide at GVHS working with special needs and autistic students from 2005 to 2009. She contracted E. coli 0157:H7 in May of 2009 and spent the next four years bravely fighting for restoration of her health. Linda passed away on July 13, 2013. Linda was known for her kind and giving nature and made a positive impact on family, friends, and the community in which she lived. Her favorite acronym was GWTOY, which stands for "Guess Who's Thinking of You?"
