

Green Valley High School Cell Phone Policy

Students are prohibited from using personal communication devices (e.g., cell phones, tablets) during the instructional day on all district campuses. Devices may be used during lunch and on district buses, as long as use is not disruptive. During class time, devices must be out of sight and unused. Policy violations will result in disciplinary action per the Clark County School District's Behavior Guidelines for Secondary Students

Cell Phone Procedures:

Upon entering class, students must store their cell phones in one of the following designated locations:

- A clothing pocket
- A purse or backpack
- School-provided storage at their desk

Failure to follow this procedure will result in progressive disciplinary action as outlined below.
